

Passionately Christian, Compassionately Interfaith

25-29 September 2017

Ever wondered about the beliefs and practices of Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism?

Ever wondered how to reimagine Christian mission in light of this?

As Christian leaders engaging the world with confidence and graciousness, we need to be deeply formed by Christian sources and broadly informed by interreligious resources.

Come, learn and grow in understanding about what it means to be passionately Christian as well as compassionately interfaith.

This unique opportunity is led by Pilgrim Theological College Guest Lecturer Dr Sathianathan Clarke who is the Bishop Sundo Kim Chair in World Christianity and Professor of Theology, Culture and Mission, at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington DC, USA.

He works passionately for justice for the poor and has travelled extensively to educate and encourage inter-religious dialogue. For the last fifteen years, Dr Clarke has taught and lectured on global Christianity, contextual theology, postcolonial mission, and inter-religious dialogue. He bridges the world between establishment and the marginalised, the global and the local, and academy and the congregation.

Open to all, this intensive takes place over five days (Monday to Friday – 9:00 am to 4:00 pm).

Day registrations options are available – please select at point of registration.
