

DL1200P/ DL1209P
Liturgical Theology and Practice

Semester 1: Classroom-based (DL1200P)

Online (DL1209P)

Description

Outlining the contours of ecumenical liturgical theology, the unit explores the juxtapositions (e.g. of and for the people, scripture and sacrament, space and symbol, and so on) that define the discipline.

Learning outcomes

Upon successful completion of this unit, it is expected that students will be able to:

1. Articulate the centrality of liturgy to the life of the church, and of Christ to liturgy
2. Explain liturgy as enacted, embodied communal ritual.
3. Articulate and illustrate the connection between worship, Christian living and mission.
4. Identify principles for the appropriate shaping and use of liturgy in different contexts.
5. Critique and construct liturgical practice within and beyond their ecclesial tradition.
